Nathaniel E. Marmon joined Chaffetz Lindsey in January 2014. Nathaniel focuses primarily on complex commercial litigation in state and federal courts.

Representative Matters:

Successful defense at trial and on appeal of a global financial institution in connection with a lawsuit asserting claims of fraud and aiding and abetting fraud, among other things, and seeking damages of over $30 billion.

Successful defense of a global financial institution, in federal court, against a securities class-action lawsuit, and other related litigation, brought by investors in the auction-rate-securities market.

Successful defense of a prominent New York hedge fund, in state court, against a lawsuit by a former partner seeking over $35 million for a purported breach of contract and assorted additional claims.

Successful defense of corporate officers in federal court against lawsuits brought under Section 16(b) of the Securities Exchange Act.

Representation of judgment creditors in New York enforcement proceeding in connection with, among other things, a successful motion to hold the judgment debtors in contempt for failure to answer discovery.

Favorable settlement of an expedited litigation in the Delaware Chancery Court arising out of the dissolution of a private equity firm and successful subsequent motion practice to enforce the terms of the settlement agreement.
