WHY WE REPRESENT INSURERS AND REINSURERS.

We thrive on helping sophisticated clients win complex disputes, and no industry has more sophisticated clients facing more complex disputes than the insurance industry. We relish the chance to team with our sophisticated insurance clients to analyze their problems and to formulate and execute the best strategies for winning their most important cases, whether in court or arbitration.

MARKET LEADING QUALITY. BOUTIQUE VALUE.

For years, many of the largest and best law firms housed top-tier insurance industry practices. Our partners led the insurance disputes practice for one of those leading large firms. However, changes in large firm cultures and economics made these firms increasingly incompatible with insurers' litigation needs. We built a new platform that allows us to provide our insurance clients with top-tier representation at maximum value.

DEEP INDUSTRY EXPERIENCE. BROAD COMMERCIAL PERSPECTIVE.

Our team is a recognized leader in insurance and reinsurance disputes. We have helped clients address every major industry issue of the past three decades, from asbestos to 9/11 to mortgage-backed securities, and many others. We have delivered successful results to clients facing exposures ranging into the billions of dollars. We succeed in insurance cases because we are accomplished business litigators, as well as business owners and operators. We use our commercial sense and entrepreneurial drive to help insurers and reinsurers enforce their contracts and achieve both their legal and business objectives.
