VCARD

Aníbal Sabater is an international arbitration specialist with 30 years of experience in complex contractual and investment disputes concerning projects and transactions around the world.

Licensed in several US jurisdictions, England and Wales (solicitor), and Spain, Aníbal primarily represents clients in international arbitrations and usually takes three arbitrator appointments per year.

He has served in all capacities — presiding, sole, co-, emergency, and consolidation arbitrator — and has ample experience arbitrating cases under the Rules of the AAA, CIAC/IACAC, HKIAC, ICC, ICDR, LCIA, SIAC, and UNCITRAL, as well as under the Rules of the Houston Maritime Arbitrators Association. He has also acted as arbitrator in numerous ad hoc proceedings.

Aníbal is a Fellow of the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators, an immediate past-President of the UIA Commission on the Future of the Lawyer, and a past President of the International Law Committee of the Association of the Bar of the City of New York. He is currently a member of several arbitrator panels, including those from the ICDR, SIAC, DR-CAFTA Chapter 20, the Houston Maritime Arbitrators Association, and the Central America–Chile Free Trade Agreement.

Chambers ranks Aníbal in Band 1 for most-in-demand arbitrators for the US, Band 1 for Latin America, and Band 3 Globally. He is described by Chambers sources as "a really terrific arbitrator who can conduct proceedings in both English and Spanish. He is extremely knowledgeable, has great judgment and is very fair."

Details of Aníbal's representative experience as counsel can be found online here.
